

$3.5-Million Financing Signed for PD Project

BATLEY ROWSON, NEW arrival to American shores from Ceylon, strolled into a hostful of eager women on Palm Canyon Drive here yesterday and walked away with a ticket for the "Backstage Round-up" tomorrow at Deep Well Hotel. Mary Hill and Rita Thompson, flanking Phyllis Flax in the booth, were the first of a Palm Springs Junior Women's Club contingent who volunteered to sell tickets for the benefit. The club reported brisk sales yesterday. For more information on the event, see page 5. (Desert Sun Photo)

PLANNERS OKEH ONE ZONING PLAN

The city planning commission Wednesday approved a zoning map for recently annexed Section 29, but held for 60 days action on Section 20 zoning. The delay was made to permit study of what the master plan will show if approved by then.

In Section 29, the zoning calls for single family residences adjacent to the golf course, and two large R-2 zones near the wash on the south side. On the north side of the wash, R-1 was approved, with guest ranch zoning for the golf course itself.

HIGHWAY FRONTAGE zoning is divided between R-3 and commercial, with R-3 behind the frontage areas. Other property has R-2 zoning in east-west strips.

In later action in the meeting, the commission recommended to the City Council approval of the street plan portions of the master plan. The master plan was referred back to the commission by the City Council for re-study, but the commission decided the street plan was not an issue.

One observer reported the primary question seemed to be a council consideration of commercial zoning on portions of North Palm Canyon Drive, primarily now occupied with hotel properties.

IN THE SECOND hearing of the meeting, the commission denied the application of Zachary Pitts of Indian Land Development Company, Incorporated, for a conditional use permit to construct a gasoline service station at the southeast corner of Indian Avenue and Arenas Road.

The commission held that the proposed station was not 500 feet or more from an existing station, and did not meet existing need or upgrading of Indian Avenue.

Withdrawn from the agenda was consideration of telephone booths on Palm Canyon Drive, and continued at applicant's request was the final approval of the Jack Meiselman Ocotillo Palms Estates.

THE COMMISSION approved six agenda items, and referred to the public works department a question of whether trees and shrubs near the Capri Hotel were on public right-of-way. Four added items were approved, including architectural approval for additions to the 650 Hotel.

The commission passed a resolution urging the sale of the old police department property on North Palm Canyon Drive, and the purchase of the Turk property adjacent to the Royal Palms Hotel for off-street parking facilities.

WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Mostly sunny today and Saturday but some high clouds Saturday windy and slightly cooler north-northwest sections Saturday. High temperatures today from 75 to 85 in upper valleys and from 85 to 95 in lower valleys.

Yesterday's high, 89; low, 58.

Country Club Village

$3.5-Million Pact For PD Project

PALM DESERT — The signing of a $3.5 million financing agreement for the first 123 residential units in the planned Country Club Village here was announced today by Harry Goldberger, executive vice president of the Golconda Development Company of Beverly Hills.

Goldberger announced the financing agreement was made with the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Company, through the Indio office, and the Home Builders Savings and Loan Company of Pomona. Agreement for the joint finance venture was signed in the First American Title Company offices in Riverside.

BUILDERS OF THE units will be Hale Company of Anaheim, headed by Herman Hale and Sam Berlind. Associated Engineers, Ontario, engineered the program.

The homes will be built in groups of 16, centered by a recreational area for each cluster, Goldberger announced.

Khrushchev Delays Berlin Action, Asks Talk With 'New' U.S. President

2nd Thrifty Drug Store Plan Revealed

Firm Will Build Second Store at PS Shopping Center

Thrifty Drug Stores Co., Inc., has just signed a lease with Palm Springs Shopping Center bringing the burgeoning civic center area its first drug store.

In a joint announcement by Ray Ryan and President W. Conen Thornton of Seeterra, Inc., and Thrifty Drug Store Vice President Manny Borun, it was revealed that Thrifty's second desert resort city store will occupy a total of 18,100 square feet of floor space, including a 2,000-foot balcony.

THE ARCHITECTURAL firm of Mayer and Kanner is completing plans for the new structure and the firm of Ernest Hahn, Inc. will be the builder.

The new store will be located at the intersection of two major Palm Springs thoroughfares, McCallum Way and Farrell Drive. An extension of the latter Street all the way south to Ramon Road will connect with the Farrell Drive portion already in use.

THRIFTY WILL adjoin two other major enterprises, the 20,000 square foot supermarket, Market Basket and the 24-lane bowling center, Palm Springs Lanes. The latter project, in operation since Jan. 15, was Palm Springs Shopping center's first building.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Market Basket will be held May 23, with completion slated for November.

Teachers Assn. Wants Benefits

Representatives of the Palm Springs Teachers Association presented "recommendations" to the board of the Palm Springs Unified School District for certified personnel benefits in lieu of over-the-table pay increases during a study session last night.

James S. Millon, chairman of the PSTA committee, estimated costs of the fringe and cash benefits at $58,400 for the coming year, if the minimum of the recommendations for staff additions are accepted.

Kennedy-Morse Clash in Oregon

WASHINGTON — UPI — Sens. John F. Kennedy and Wayne Morse contested today for Oregon's 17 Democratic convention votes while Virginia prepared to give 33 votes to Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson.

The Oregon balloting provided a last major clash of the 1960 presidential primaries. Kennedy has entered six other state primaries this year and won each of them with a big vote.

NOBODY ASKED HER, BUT WATERWORKS QUEEN HATES WATER

MIAMI BEACH — UPI — When Jackie Johnsen was chosen Miss American Waterworks, nobody thought to ask her how she feels about water.

But Waterworks Assn. officials found out when they cast her as the star of their annual convention here recently.

Representatives of 50 states and four countries poured samples of their hometown water into a swimming pool. As the finale, Miss Johnsen was asked to dive into the pool.

"Oh, no. I'm afraid of the water," she said.

Tornadoes Rack Midwest, Level Kansas Village

By United Press International

Tornadoes swept death and destruction through the plains states and the Midwest during the night, virtually leveling the small town of Meriden, Kan.

Authorities said almost all the homes and business establishments in Meriden, a town of 388 persons, were demolished by the twister. One person was killed and at least 50 injured.

The body of Mrs. Mildred Hundley was found in the wreckage of the cafe she operated in Meriden.

Tornadoes also struck Topeka and Leavenworth and swept away homes in farm areas of northeastern Kansas.

Sheriff's deputies said the Leavenworth tornado "caused considerable damage. Houses and barns just disappeared and we're trying to find out if anyone is missing."

The American Red Cross sent a disaster unit to Rossville and Silver Lake, near Topeka, Kan., after a tornado swooped through the farm area. Nine homes were destroyed and several persons injured.

WE MAY FIND IT necessary for this government to urge a dissolution of the present UN in order to form a new and more virile world organization, comprised only of the free nations, and all those who value their national integrity in the face of the march of the Red dictatorship," said Dr. Lechner.

"If the cold war tempo is increased, we will need a leader in the White House who has the wisdom and the courage to work for the insulation of the Free World against increasing depredations by a ruthless conspiracy headed by Khrushchev and his underlings," continued the speaker.

DR. LECHNER POINTED out the major steps taken over the last three decades responsible for the building of Soviet power, including the two major wars and the Korean conflict, as well as conferences at Tehran, Potsdam, Cairo and Yalta, declaring that vital territories were given the Reds which made possible the present threat to our own security.

"Although party differences must be sublimated in dealing with the threat of Communism, it is nevertheless true that the Democratic Party was responsible for the Soviet buildup through its policy of appeasement. The recent state convention of the Democratic Party illustrates the fact that its leaders have not changed in their basic stand."

Dr. Lechner referred to the party platform adopted at Fresno, calling for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, the stand against the loyalty oath, and other pro-Red policies.

"THE AMERICAN people are ready for the bald truth on the menace of Communism, and I am sure they will follow the man who will express the courage to end the disastrous temporizing with a dedicated enemy of our way of life," continued Dr. Lechner.

Dr. Lechner stated that if Nixon and the Republican Party are to meet the grave challenge of the next four years, they will have to renounce "neo-Republicanism, and will have to interpret for our people and for the free world, the moral principles and lofty ideas of freedom and justice."

HIGH SCHOOL COED LOSES LEG AFTER ATTACK BY SHARK

The victim, Suzanne Theriot, was attending the picnic with her sophomore class, which had been given a half-day holiday for selling the most yearbooks at Mora Catholic High School in Watsonville.

It was the first serious shark attack on the California coast since last May when Albert Kogler, 18, was fatally injured by a giant man-eater shark.

GOP TOLD 'STRONG LEADER NEEDED'

Khrushchev's epochal defiance of the moral conscience of the world should point out the need for a re-appraisal of the basic issues in the coming Presidential elections," declared Dr. John R. Lechner, patriotic leader in addressing members of the Riverside County Republican Central Committee last night at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel.

Dr. Lechner stated that Vice President Nixon can provide the "dynamic leadership necessary to lift us out of the morass of international confusion and suspicion, provided he adopts a positive and militant stand against the Communist conspiracy."

"WE BELIEVE THAT even though the summit was torpedoed by the reactionaries, that the summit will take place in six or eight months." But Eisenhower will not be there, he emphasized.

Khrushchev thus set a new ultimatum on West Berlin, as he first did 18 months ago. This time he left the time limit deliberately fuzzy.

THE APPARENT EFFECT of Khrushchev's strategy was to inject the Berlin issue into the American presidential campaign.

HERE AT HOME, Adlai E. Stevenson shocked even staunch Democrats last night when he charged that the Eisenhower administration blundered right into Nikita Khrushchev's hands and "the whole sorry mess cannot be swept under the rug in the name of national unity."

"We handed Khrushchev the crowbar and the sledgehammer to wreck the summit meeting," Stevenson said. "Let there be no mistake about that."

Monument Lands To Be U.S. Park

WASHINGTON — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) said Thursday he had been assured that the National Park Service plans to acquire all privately owned lands in the Joshua Tree National Monument area of California.

Kuchel said he had this assurance from Interior Secretary Fred Seaton in a move to knock down reports that real estate development is likely in the scenic area of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

HE SAID THE federal government intends to acquire some 53,000 acres now held by private owners and already is negotiating with the owners of 8,000 acres.

The California senator said most of the land is owned by railroads. He said Seaton does not expect any difficulty in buying it.

KUCHEL EXPLAINED some land owners want other government lands in California in exchange for their Joshua Tree property. However, he said the Interior Department has been unable to reach agreements on values.

As a result, he said, the administration probably will ask Congress to approve outright purchase of the privately held tracts within the monument area.

Will Never Meet With Ike Again

Berlin Deadline Extended Until After November

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, D.C. (INS) — President Eisenhower, arrived here shortly after noon (p.d.t.), has revealed that an unarmed American military transport plane is missing near the East German border. The President expressed the fear that some new incident with the Reds may be in the making.

BERLIN UPI — Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today he would take no action against West Berlin for at least six to eight months—when he hopes another summit conference can be held with the next U. S. President.

He made it clear he would never again meet with President Eisenhower. He extended his deadline on a new Berlin crisis until new American presidential elections are held and the United States elects someone "who can negotiate."

KHRUSHCHEV REPEATED his threats to withdraw a peace treaty with East Germany and to turn West Berlin into a "free city" but indicated he would be willing to talk this over with anyone besides Eisenhower.

"I believe I will be understood," Khrushchev told a late-Eisenhower rally of 8,000 East German Communist party stalwarts. "But I warn our partners. The Soviets and our friends will not sit forever and wait for good weather for a peace treaty."

"WE BELIEVE THAT even though the summit was torpedoed by the reactionaries, that the summit will take place in six or eight months." But Eisenhower will not be there, he emphasized.

Khrushchev thus set a new ultimatum on West Berlin, as he first did 18 months ago. This time he left the time limit deliberately fuzzy.

Only Girls Have Rooms At PV School

Curriculum, Aides For Next Session Told by Field

Accommodations for boarding students in September at the Palm Valley School near Palm Springs will be only for girls from grades seven through twelve, J. Blake Field, director, said today.

There is a limited number of accommodations for boarding and a horseback riding program.

DR. AND MRS. Alexander Kadvany of Long Beach will supervise the girls at the home located on a piece of ranch property near the school, which is just off Highway 111, east of Laurie's Steak Ranch.

Instruction in modern foreign languages will be a part of the daily life under the direction of Mrs. Kadvany. Weekend programs will also be planned.

Major Charles Valko has been engaged by the school to instruct horseback riding for students.

Valko, comes to Palm Springs from Mills College in Oakland where he was on the staff as director of horseback riding. For many years, Valko was instructor of the Hungarian Olympic Equestrian team.

Parents interested in boarding facilities are urged to contact Field at the school for further information.

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have been looking for a job since last September. I am 22, a college grad (Liberal Arts) and people tell me I am nice looking and have a pleasing personality. I'd like a selling job. Everywhere I apply, I am told, "Sorry, but you have had no experience." Abby, how is a girl going to get experience if nobody will give her a job?

INEXPERIENCED DEAR INEXPERIENCED: If you're after a selling job, the first thing you must do is demonstrate your ability to sell a would-be employer. Make a case for a chance to prove yourself. An employer is not likely to hire a sales person who is content to take "no" for an answer without a struggle.

DEAR ABBY: I am eight years old and am going to be nine on September 10th and I have a question for you, Abby. Is there any such bird as the STORK or did they make that up, too?

CHARLES DEAR CHARLES: Yes, there is a bird known as the stork... but don't believe everything you hear about it.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

CC LIONS INSTALL SLATE SATURDAY

CATHEDRAL CITY — Installation and Recognition Dinner will be held at the Cathedral City Lions Club at 6:30 p. m., Saturday.

Officers to be installed are Orvil Zappe, president; Delmont Ziegler, first vice president; Ed Donahue, second vice president; Larry Weingartner, secretary; Johannes Anderson, treasurer; Ivan Sharp, Lion-tamer; Bill Hendrickson, tail twister; Ralph Hammer, Francis Wood, Gordon White and Harry Grenevelt, trustees.

Retiring president Chester Madison will preside, and Boynton Jones, International Counselor of Lions, Indio, will be installing officer. A dance will follow the dinner, at the Elks Club in Indio.

Patty Patzner Named Delegate To Girls' State

Palm Springs high school junior Patty Patzner has been named delegate to the 17th annual Girls' State to be held at the University of California, Davis, June 20 - 26, and Georgia Morris has been named alternate.

Miss Patzner is sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary Unit 519, and Unit 763, Desert Hot Springs.

The selection of delegate and alternate is based on leadership, character, citizenship, scholastic standing, and cooperative abilities.

In Girls' State, the delegates will participate in model municipal, county, and state government.

JAMESON TOURING IN TWO COUNTIES

Tall and energetic Charles H. Jameson of Corona, a native of Riverside County, is possibly one of the busiest men in Southern California, speeding around two counties campaigning for the 29th Congressional seat's Republican nomination.

Jameson is seeking to be opponent to incumbent D. S. Saund (D.) who is up for his third term for the Congressional seat.

LAST WEEK, HAVING covered the areas of Blythe, Ripley, El Centro, Holtville and Brawley, he turned his sights toward the rest of the county and is visiting Palm Springs, Riverside, Palm Desert and Elsinore.

Aside from campaigning, he is traveling on the tour in connection with the dedication of the completed Metropolitan Water District Aqueduct.

AMONG THE various topics Jameson commented on during his campaigning here were national defense problems, which were revealed by the news that Russia had captured one of our U2 planes.

"Our national defense must be one of our primary considerations," Jameson said. "We must realize that we are still engaged in a cold war with Russia, and that more than half of our national budget is going for this purpose. They have made it perfectly plain that they are out to bury us and it is up to us to see that they don't."

FROM ADJACENT communities were: Mark C. Green, publisher of the Desert Sentinel, Desert Hot Springs; Ray Hamilton, director of public works, Indio; City Attorney Harry Cannon, Councilman Ben Saiz, and Coachella Valley Sun Publisher and Editor Ward H. Grant, of Coachella.

In charge of the trip was W. P. Hand, division manager, San Bernardino, assisted by 14 other company officials including C. E. Graham, commercial manager, Banning. Special public relations representatives from the company on the tour were H. C. Johnson and W. D. Meiklejohn.

Officials, Newsmen Get Close-Up On California-Arizona Gas Plants

Forty-two city and county officials and newspapermen from Riverside County learned more about natural gas last weekend, through on-the-spot visits to Southern California Gas Company and El Paso Natural Gas Company facilities in California and Arizona.

The two-day tour was sponsored by Southern California Gas.

TAKEOFF POINT was from Palm Springs Airport, with the chartered DC-4 taking on more passengers at Ontario Airport. Initial stop was at Hawthorne Airport and a tour of the underground storage plant at Playa del Rey.

Covering 200 acres of land, this project located in a residential area contains over 40 wells which are operated for the storage and withdrawal of gas.

USING GAS WHICH is brought in via pipeline from Texas, six giant compressors compress the gas in two stages to a pressure sufficient enough to inject the gas into the storage reservoir some 6,000 feet below the surface.

The reservoir is a natural rock barrier, easily controlled through pressure, and was developed as a gas storage area during World War II as a project for the government. It formerly was an oil field, which has become economically unsound to operate.

Soundproofing, together with landscaping, has made this $15 million facility a not unattractive addition to the adjacent residential area.

UNDERGROUND STORAGE is needed to take care of "peak" hour use in the Los Angeles area, with company officials able to add to the natural supply in its lines to customers as required.

The air trip continued after a buffet lunch at the plant, with Needles the destination. A chartered bus was waiting at the airport, and the group went across the state line into Arizona and to the El Paso Natural Gas Company's measuring station, through which is channeled 400 million cubic feet of gas per day for Southern California Gas and its sister company, Southern Counties Gas Company.

DELIVERY is taken half way across the Colorado River, with the gas channeled to the new $5 million Needles Compressor Station, and there sent on its way to customers and underground storage points.

An evening of relaxation followed the Arizona visit, with a trip to the compressor station following breakfast the next morning. There's room for expansion at the station, which will be undertaken as needed.

RETURNING TO the airport, the group took off for Apple Valley and a buffet luncheon at the Apple Valley Inn, and then the flight home by chartered DC3 to their respective cities.

NEW BEAUMONT HIGH CONSTRUCTION STARTS

BEAUMONT — School officials from the Beaumont School District reported today that construction is now under way on their major new high school to serve the increasing student population of their city.

The new school, which will handle an initial enrollment of 600 and a projected enrollment of 1,200 when its phased building program is completed was designed by Los Angeles architects and engineers, Daniel Mann, Johnson, & Mendenhall.

General contractors for the project are Forsberg and Gregory, and estimated construction cost is more than $1 million.

Anyone qualifying is asked to contact Chamber President Jim Husky, Crestline, and arrangements will be made "to assure a glorious July weekend for California old timers."

John Lee Rites Held Yesterday in Long Beach

Funeral services for John Lee, 66, Long Beach, father of Mrs. Flora Lee Park of Cathedral City, were conducted yesterday in Long Beach.

A native of Long Beach, he had been associated with Signal Oil Company prior to retirement. He died Tuesday morning.

Survivors include his widow, Eva; four daughters, Mrs. Park, Cathedral City; Mrs. Myrtle Woodford and Mrs. Bertha Montgomery of Long Beach; and Mrs. Anna May Shannon of Salinas; and two sons, John Lee and Charles Lee of Long Beach.

County Denies Skeet Range Bid

An application by Eugene Easton and Fred Elg of Palm Springs for a permit to establish a trap skeet shooting range on property south of the B Bar H Ranch and Dillon Road in the Garnet area was denied by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation of the planning commission.

S.B. Horse Show Brochures Ready

SANTA BARBARA — More than 10,000 four-fold brochures will be used to call attention to the 41st annual Santa Barbara National Horse Show and Flower Show, secretary-manager Allen Ross said yesterday.

Horse Show dates are July 8 through 16 inclusive.

DHS LEGIONAIRES SELLING POPPIES TODAY, TOMORROW

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 763 is selling Memorial Poppies in the downtown area here today and Saturday. Mrs. Eva Jacobsen, sales program chairman, announced.

Mrs. Jacobsen emphasized that the sale of memorial poppies made in hospitals by disabled veterans is a major revenue source for aid to veterans and their families.

Judges in the Poppy Poster contest here will be Mrs. Betty Lukowski, Red Edson, and C. H. Russell, the Auxiliary reported. Winners in the contest will be announced June 1 in a school assembly here.

Understanding, Confidence

Conflicting statements, many of which are politically inspired, about this nation's military strength has caused a great deal of confusion on the subject in the minds of most Americans. Accounts of Russia's growing power, some of which are guesswork, have only added to the confusion and caused a lack of confidence on the part of many people.

In view of this unfortunate situation, some of the statements made recently by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay before the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco are both enlightening and encouraging. The Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force said that he is deeply concerned over this state of public confusion because it can lead to a lack of confidence. He said that our deterrent power consists of these three major ingredients:

Forces able to prevail under all circumstances in event of conflict.

Public understanding and confidence in the capability of these forces, and public support of our determination to use them if necessary.

The enemy's awareness of our capability and our resolve to use these forces—if needed—to halt aggression.

The General believes that the key factors in deterrence are understanding and confidence. As Gen. LeMay points out, the mightiest force this nation can assemble will not deter an aggressor unless there is public confidence and determination to use them. In other words, we can maintain peace only through unprecedented strength and making it plain we will use it.

If determination of the American people should wane because of complacency, confusion and loss of confidence, the Air Force leader warned, the ability of this nation to maintain peace throughout the world would be greatly endangered; just and honest plans for peace can only be made from a position of strength and unity.

Confidence in America's might should be stimulated by Gen. LeMay's declaration that the Strategic Air Command—primary element of this nation's nuclear deterrent—has the ability to destroy the war-making capacity of any aggressor. He continues:

The situation today is that your Air Force, together with the other services, possesses the clearly established capability to destroy the fundamental elements of the military power of any aggressor.

We have the blend of weapons and trained people to destroy an aggressor's residual military power and capacity should he launch the initial attack.

In addition, the Air Force has the inherent capability to meet successfully a broad variety of military conflicts of different magnitudes, thereby deterring such conflicts.

Confused Americans can take assurance in these statements by a man who is not making them for political purposes but to give Americans a greater confidence in their armed forces. He concludes a review of progress made in new weapons:

The Atlas ICBM is just becoming operational and complementing the bomber force. This is the greatest peacetime fighting force in existence—and the strongest military force the world has ever assembled, trained to a razor's edge, and ready for use... we are constantly modernizing this force.

Plainly, Americans need to have more confidence in men like Gen. LeMay and wholeheartedly support the determination of such men to continue the development of more advanced weapons. While the right to criticize our government must be preserved, Americans should not let themselves become confused by such criticism; for only through confidence in our military leaders and weapons—and a willingness to use them if necessary—can we hope to win the cold war and prevent a hot one.

We Can Have This Victory

WASHINGTON, D. C. — In second sober thinking about the miserable spy plane episode, it may turn out that nothing is lost except our honor. Our Secretary of State has been caught in a lie, which is bad enough. Our President has looked very inept, which is worse. But if we can, for once, rise above the pusillanimity to which the nuclear age has conditioned so much of our thinking, it is possible to find a silver lining here.

In wartime, hot or cold, the purpose is not to arrange a meeting of wills with the enemy. The purpose is to force our will upon him. The loss of our U-2 spy plane and the capture by the Russians of its pilot has not made it easier for the Summit principals to talk about friendship and accommodation between the USA and USSR, but such talk was nonsense anyhow.

ON THE OTHER hand, this episode has put the USA in a position to force one of President Eisenhower's major policies upon Russia. I treat our relations with Russia truthfully and admit that we are engaging with an implacable enemy, it is now within our capability to score a clear victory and to impose the will of the President upon a sulking Khrushchev.

At his pre-Summit press conference, Mr. Eisenhower told us of this policy, this will. It is his Open Sky proposal which he made in Geneva at the 1955 Summit meeting. In these words:

"TO GIVE to each other a complete blueprint of our military establishments, from beginning to end, from one end of our countries to the other; lay out the establishments and provide the blueprints to each other. Next, to provide within our countries facilities for aerial photography to the other country... you can make all the pictures you choose and take them to your country to study, you to provide exactly the same facilities for us..."

THE RUSSIAN leaders, Bulganin and Khrushchev, did not choose to accept — but this time we can, if we dare, make a very good effect by attempting to force their acceptance. This is true because, in the limited but significant science of aerial reconnaissance, we occupy a position of strength.

We are better at aerial spying than the enemy is. The President can say to Khrushchev — either accept my Open Sky proposal or we will continue with the successful penetration of your air space and will take photographs of all your military operations.

THIS WOULD not be empty boasting on the President's part. The Air Force is organized with reconnaissance groups in both the Tactical Air Command and Strategic Air Command. These units are provided with RF-101's, RF-66's and RF-47's. These swift, high-flying fighter-type and bomber-type planes need not operate from foreign bases. Two of them in their Navy equivalents can be carrier-launched,

MIAMI BEACH — Jackie Johnson, "Miss American Waterworks," asked to dive into a pool of samples of water from 50 states and four countries: "Who, me? On, no. I'm afraid of the water."

CHICAGO — Adlai Stevenson, charging the administration "handed Khrushchev the crowbar and the sledgehammer" to wreck the summit conference: "Without our series of blunders, Mr. Khrushchev would not have had a pretext for making his impossible demand and wild charges."

and the third is today being operationally refueled at high altitude.

All these and other planes, as well as our Space vehicles, are equipped with automatic cameras of amazing reach and fidelity. Some of the highest performance figures are not yet released for publication, but even the available, outdated information is impressive enough.

ON AN ACTUAL four-hour flight from Los Angeles to New York at 40,000 feet, a strip of land 2,700 miles long and 400 miles wide was filmed. Pictures from a 7-camera battery of this type will show what type of lawn-mower was used to cut the grass at particular homes, what laundry hangs out to dry and what material is used in the separate houses.

Altitude and night are no longer conditions of any importance in aerial photography. Cloud cover and camouflage do not baffle the airborne camera. Unless the Russians are willing to fight a war about it, they cannot prevent our looking down their chimneys.

AND IF WE are willing to lose an occasional plane, we can have just about all the pictures of Russian military sites that we desire. There is no evidence that they can match us in this field. And even if they did, they would derive less profit since we are far less secretive.

It is an imposing position of strength which we hold in aerial reconnaissance. Within another few years, we will have Space satellites to do the same job. This is one time when our advantage over the cold war enemy is clear and present. Leaving aside, for the moment, the merits of the Open Sky proposal, it is a policy which Mr. Eisenhower now has the power to force upon Khrushchev.

And to force one's will upon the enemy — that is the very essence and definition of military victory.

—HOLMES ALEXANDER

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

It's all for the kids. So forget to hoard. Just dig up two bucks. And buy 'em a board.

Now, wait a minute. I know you know some kids for whom you'd like to buy a board and apply it in the proper place.

But the kids I am writing about are not those kind of kids. They are too busy playing Little League and Minor League baseball to have time to be exasperating.

PALM SPRINGS Junior Chamber of Commerce has started a drive to raise around $6,000 to build bleachers and backstops and other needed adjuncts of a real baseball field.

As noted the other day, city council has donated the land for two ball parks for the Little and Minor Leagues and has voted cash for lights. Massey donated men and equipment to level the diamonds. Certified Sprinkler Systems has donated and installed the sprinkler system and local gardeners are furnishing time and seed for the turf.

NOW ALL THAT is needed are bleachers, fences and the like.

That's where you come in.

President John West of the JCs has named Jack Oberle head of a committee to raise the funds for what's left.

He has adopted the slogan "Bucks for Boards" and is now busily engaged in the campaign.

Don't stall when they come around to you.

This summer baseball activity has done more for the kids from eight years up than most anything else.

For two bucks you can have a hand in this great work.

SEEMS THAT WHILE there is still some confusion about PST and PDT (standard and daylight time) there is also still some mixed-up people on a. m. and p. m.

Fellow writes in to say: "Yesterday you ran an article saying that such - and - such an event would be held at 12:30 p. m. You meant 12:30 a. m. didn't you? 12:30 p. m. would be in the middle of the night."

IT WOULD NOT. The "m" in p. m. means meridian, technically noon. The "p" means post or after. So anything after the meridian or noon is p. m. or afternoon. 12:30 p. m. is practically smack in the middle of the day. Similarly, the second we scoot past midnight, is ante meridian or before noon. 12:30 a. m. is the middle of the night.

THERE IS ALSO some confusion on how to designate 12 noon and 12 midnight.

Most people write in 12m for noon and 12m for midnight. According to a railroad friend, it's just the opposite.

12n means 12 night or midnight and 12m means 12 meridian or noon.

This lesson on how to tell time comes to you, not from me, but from a diligent bit of research in the timetables of five standard railroads.

In a Rotary Club magazine I read that the latest class of underprivileged children are those whose parents own two cars but no speedboat.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Throw Out the Lifeline

Like Art and Culture, the lively spiritual side of California has been watered down by the cascade of new people pouring into the Golden State.

The original settlers of the boom-time Eighties brought the old-time religion with them. This was not (as it is today) the land of electronics, missiles and golden real estate. It was the State to retire in. And once retired, to find the State of Grace.

CHURCHES OF ALL denominations sprang up under the smog-less blue skies.

Along with the retired population came an adequate number of preachers, evangelists and assorted sky pilots of splinter groups.

Nearly all were successful.

OUR MOST FAMOUS Lady of the Light was the late Aimee Semple McPherson. She had been converted by a young Holy Roller pastor. And her Angelus Temple of the Four-Square Gospel always had a flavor of this brisk background.

Sister Aimee's Temple in Los Angeles grew on a slather of voluntary gifts from a wholly satisfied congregation. It was no dry service.

WHEN THE GOSPEL Light-house sang, "Throw Out the Lifeline," the ladies of the choir were dressed like American sailors. The Navy protested in a court action. But they lost.

In this spectacle of salvation, a number of volunteer ladies clung to a paper-mache Rock of Ages. Stage lights flashed. Loud-speaker thunder roared.

Sister Aimee in an Admiral's uniform directed the rescue — the Navy-clad choir and a life-saving crew of young men tossed an actual line. And all were saved from the stormy seas of sin to the shores of salvation.

THERE WAS a brief interlude in 1926 when Sister disappeared in a green bathing suit into the Pacific and turned up in Agua Prieta, Mexico.

She had been kidnaped, she said, by a trio of fiends named Steve and Jake and Mexicali Rose.

Diane hasn't been gone as long as Chara Bow, of course, but out of sight is out of mind and even though a gal has a right to change HER mind this time it's no false alarm. I'm told the doll is anxious to be close to Hollywood in order to be ready when "Return to Peyton Place" rolls. Besides, the summers back East can get pretty hot.

Presley's pushoff platter, post-Army, isn't moving off the record racks 'cross - country as rapidly as reported. His recording company, RCA-Victor, confirms this.

Sure Elvis is No. One on most of the polls. But that's because the distributors ordered hundreds of thousands of pressings of the longplay album, expecting smash sales. THOSE are the orders that push a platter to the poll pinnacles. But Elvis' fans, I'm afraid, have let him down. C'mon, kids, Bobby Darin can't last forever either!

GWEN VERDON's contractual ownership of her smash musical "Redhead," gives her 30 percent of the gross profits if and when it's made into a movie.

This may well mean that Gwen will star in the picture. Another star (say, for instance, Shirley MacLaine) would want a 50 percent deal and that, on top of Gwen's, would provide the producer with the proverbial peanuts. Miss Verdon told me: "I'm pretty sneaky — I set the deal up myself before I signed to star in the stage show."

I asked Gwen about a national magazine's quote, attributed to her father, about Gwen's grandparents being "strolling Shakespearean players." Since Gwen used to write my column in The Hollywood Reporter during my vacations, I know a little bit about her. I didn't know THAT about her. Gwen replied, "Papa was never - mind. His father was a bricklayer and his mother ran a fish - and - chips shop in London." Then why the Shakespearean bit? I asked Gwen. "Well, it's like this - magazine interviews make my Papa NERVOUS!"

UNUSUAL CHAMBER RECITAL TOLD

REDLANDS — A program of unusual chamber music will be presented in Watchorn Hall at the University of Redlands Tuesday, May 24 at 8:15 p.m.

Of special interest will be the first performance of "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock" after the poem of T. S. Eliot set to music by John T. Robertson for tenor, flute, cello and piano.

THE PROGRAM WILL begin with the "Chansons Madecasses" by Maurice Ravel, followed by a trio written by the American composer Norman Dello Joio.

"enor soloist will be Burl Dean Smith, well-known singer in the Southern California area and a graduate of the University of Redlands. He was the leading tenor in the Los Angeles Opera production of "Manon" last fall and in the University-Community Symphony's performance of Beethoven's Ninth (Choral) Symphony this spring.

AFTER SUN-SET

Get Your 'Roundup' Ticket Fast

By GEORGE LAINE

"You've got slightly more than 24 hours left to get yourself a ticket to tomorrow's huge 'Backstage Roundup' to be held around the pool at the Deep Well Hotel.

If you miss it, you can read about it here on Monday but that isn't going to provide you with the joy of good food, the fun of an action-packed show, the excitement of several prize projects or the glamour of mixing with some of the great, some of the good in the world of entertainment.

IN REALITY, WHERE would you go if you didn't go to the "Roundup" tomorrow? Insofar as the ticket lists advance sales indicate, just about everyone in town will be at the benefit. There's a Junior Women's Club installation but many of them plan to drop in at Deep Well following their own program.

Which brings to mind another facet of this wondrous thing called community consciousness. Informed that the Friends of the Ferrall's Playhouse were up against it for persons to man their ticket booth in front of Palm Springs Drug Store, the Junior Women's Club instantaneously volunteered to man — or is it woman — the booth. (You ought to drop by the booth and thank the person in it — or any member of the Junior Women's Club — for this great and sincere gesture of interest and support.

BUT THAT'S THE way the entire two weeks have been. Ever since the Friends formed, there has been a steady and sincere barrage of such actions — some of them from persons who possibly never attended the theater.

Latest in the line of donations to the cause are two pieces of art work. One is a Desert original by internationally-known painter Helen Braunschweiger. It'll be "Dutch Auctioned" by Dr. George Milkie tomorrow. The second object d'art is an original "Our Dames" cartoon, the immaculately drawn, cleverly contrived series that George Shaw formerly did for the Desert Sun. It will be one of several door prizes.

Tomorrow's paper will carry a complete wrap-up on all of the prizes available in the "Fast Draw" contest, the "Dutch Auction," the door prizes and the dancing prizes. (If you can't win something at the "Roundup," never go to Vegas. You're just plumb unlucky.)

Durante Pacted For 'Pepe' Role

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Jimmy Durante, one of show business' tall-time greats, has been signed for a role in "Pepe," being produced for Columbia release.

"Pepe," which stars Mexican comedian Cantinflas, also will include such "great stars" as Maurice Chevalier, Tony Curtis, Sammy Davis Jr., Hedda Hopper, Debbie Reynolds, Edward G. Robinson and Frank Sinatra.

BOBBY RAMOS, POPULAR Latin entertainer now featured in the Riviera Hotel, will be one of three Latin bands to play during the evening tomorrow night for the "Backstage Roundup" at the Deep Well Hotel. Ramos' music is based on cha cha rhythms but the bandleader also utilizes meringues, tangos and other tempo. (Gayle Studio Photo)

VERSATILE TJADER SLATED IN CONCERT

SAN BERNARDINO — A passer-by walking near the San Bernardino Municipal Auditorium on the evening of Friday May 20th could well hear the strains of progressive jazz, the lilting sounds of a tender ballad, or the pulsating rhythms of an Afro-Cuban beat.

To his surprise and edification he would learn that all the music is emanating from one group — the award winning Cal Tjader Quintet, who will be making one of their infrequent Southern California concert appearances.

The Cal Tjader Quintet, who will be appearing in concert for Opus Productions at the San Bernardino Municipal Auditorium at 8:30 on Friday May 27, is assuredly one of the most versatile groups in jazz.

Tjader, a winner of the Down Beat Award for his vibes playing, also doubles on Latin rhythm instruments.

There are ways and ways of keeping cool
ICE, FANS or SWIMMING POOL.
But electric heat pumps these days
Give coolness in more modern ways.

Choose a WHOLE NEW WORLD OF COMFORT with year-around air conditioning in a fully insulated home.

Today you can have electric year-around cooling — and heating too! If you're planning to build, buy or modernize, consider the electric heat pump — the most logical step into truly modern living.

The electric heat pump is:

CONVENIENT — one thermostat controls both heating and cooling automatically. Set it only once and then forget it.

CLEAN — no fumes, no soot (flameless electric heat pumps can't make dirt!)

HEALTHFUL — no reduction of vital oxygen content of the indoor air. Fumes, soot and pollen are removed, giving relief to sufferers of asthma, hay fever and other allergies.

• Since your future is all-electric, don't settle for anything less than an electric heat pump!

Sigma Gamma Chapter Views Slides on Desert Plants

The delicate and exotic beauty of cacti and other desert plants won new appreciation from members of Sigma Gamma Chapter Beta Sigma Phi when Pat (Mrs. Chester) Moorten showed slides at the Chapter's Tuesday night meeting at the home of Helen Goudry.

Hundreds of varieties of cacti and little known desert plants, which Mrs. Moorten and her husband, who is familiarly known as "Cactus Slim," have imported and developed at their South Palm Canyon Drive home, were shown on the slides.

A special guest at the meeting with Mrs. Moorten, was Mrs. Stephen Willard, wife of the man who has long been considered the foremost photographer of desert scenes and whose work is still to be found on many of Palm Springs picture postcards. The Willards, who lived here from 1912 to 1954 before moving to a ranch near Lone Pine, were the original owners of the Moorten house and cactus gardens. When they first came to Palm Springs the entire Village covered just a few blocks with only a few buildings and the sorority members were interested in

Guests Depart

Mrs. Victor Tickle and Mrs. Richard Kranz have returned to their home in Minneapolis after spending a week here as houseguests of Mrs. Alden Coffin at her home on Paseo El Mirador.

Apply floor wax that must be polished in a thin, even coat. Buff thoroughly by hand with a bristle brush or by an electric floor polisher. Too much wax and too little buffing can make a floor slippery.

If milk delivered in clear glass bottles can't be refrigerated promptly, set up an insulated box for it. Milk exposed to sunlight will lose vitamins and develop an off-flavor in as little as 30 minutes.

B'nai Brith Women Plan Installation

New officers of B'nai Brith Women of Palm Springs will be installed at a dinner dance at Chi Chi Starlite Room on Sunday night, with Mrs. Marty Cobin acting as mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. More Kudler, 1st vice president of International B'nai Brith Women, will act as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Nat Bertram, Past President of District 4. Mrs. Allen Harris will be installed as president, succeeding Mrs. Rena Spears. Other new board members are: Mrs. Ben Goodwin, 1st vice president; Mrs. Hyman Frankel, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Joe Plotkin, 3rd vice president; Mrs. David Lager, treasurer; Mrs. Julius Sherman, financial secretary; Mrs. Herman Wittenberg, recording secretary; Mrs. Ben Jaffee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ben Litoff, historian; Mrs. Sam Black, sentinel; Mrs. Sophie Kantor, guardian.

Trustees to be installed are: Mesdames Morris Adams, Jack Auerbach, Louis Bogard, Sidney Greenleigh, Charles Kahaker, Maury Pavy, Charles Ferrar. Mrs. Rena Spears, outgoing president, was named counselor for the coming year.

Mrs. Harris, incoming president, has expressed her enthusiasm for and dedication to B'nai Brith precepts, which are international in scope. Emphasizing the fight against prejudice, the B'nai Brith program includes Hillel Foundations, guidance to youth in the ideals of democracy, aid to hospitals and children homes, veteran's welfare, and participation in local philanthropic work. B'nai Brith Women of Palm Springs have been actively employed in the local March of Dimes, contributed to Temple Isaiah and the Boys Club of Palm Springs.

The committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Spears, urges that members, their friends and visitors make early reservations. Including a delightful dinner, dancing and the Chi Chi show, the evening promises to be one of outstanding entertainment. For information call Mrs. J. Auerbach, FA 5-7374, or Mrs. David Lager, FA 5-5786. Public admission can be obtained at the door Sunday night, May 22.

Talent Auction Nets $75

Desert Hot Springs Woman's Club netted $75 in the annual Talent Auction held in the adult recreation center. Mrs. Elsie Van Arsdale, chairman of the event, reported.

Food was top seller in the auction, the ladies report. The proceeds from the event were gathered by Jeannette Mathieson and Berdine Pack.

Mrs. Sadie Dehner, chairman of the club's ways and means committee, reported that "stretch-a-dollar" projects by club members had netted $374.25 during the past year.

Top earner was Mrs. Betty Lukomski's project with beautician Fern Morgan, to teach local women makeup hints. The project netted $62.

Other top projects included Mrs. Enola Hulbert's original oil painting—$42; Mrs. Bonnie Jean Spier's Christmas decorations—$32.80; and the joint travelogue presentations of Mrs. Adele Green and Mrs. Rachel Roscoe, which netted $34.85.

Mrs. Norma Greene, chairman of the officers' installation luncheon for the club which will be held at 12:30 noon at the B-Bar-H Ranch announced that Mrs. Betty Lukomski will be installing officer.

Mrs. Burton Home from Mexican Trip

Mrs. Roy Burton returned home by train Friday from a three week visit to Mexico City and Cuernavaca. She drove down with Mrs. B. J. Bennett, a former neighbor of hers from Pasadena who now lives in the American Colony in Mexico with her husband who is building there.

While Mrs. Burton was there she visited many places of interest including the pyramids and was entertained extensively by friends.

The Burtons are planning a trip the latter part of June to take in Banff and Lake Louise in Canada and plan to take Mrs. Burton's aunt, Mrs. W. E. Richardson, of Pasadena, with them.

'Printed Word' Is Theme for Chi Thetas

"The Printed Word In Your Life" was the program presented by Eulesta Jackson when Chi Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the Cathedral City home of Mrs. Anthony Janulis.

The closing ritual was followed by a social hour when the hostesses served refreshments of strawberry tarts and coffee.

Present were pledges Mrs. Pete Broakey and Mrs. Harry Estel and Ritual of Jewels members Mmes. John Downs, Ralph Hammer, Ed Donahue, Sy Slocum and advisor Robert Irvine.

AAUW Wins Awards at San Jose Convention

Double honors were accorded Palm Springs Branch of the American Association of University Women at the state convention held in San Jose last weekend.

Recognition was given at the Friday night banquet, when Palm Springs was one of the 39 of 114 state branches reaching 100 per cent in giving for the Fund for the new Educational Building in Washington D. C.

Special recognition also came at Saturday's Fellowship Luncheon, when it was disclosed that Palm Springs Branch had attained first place in the state in per capita giving of $7.68 per member. The local A.A.U.W. has 73 members and four associate members.

In addition to its Fellowships, the local Branch will award scholarships in the Palm Springs and Coachella High Schools; give the second half of the Scholarship previously granted to Carol Clapp, who will be a Senior in the University of Hawaii next year; and also a donation to the American "eld Society. These gifts will bring the per capita giving of the Palm Springs Branch for this year to just under $22 per member.

The Annual House Tour, in which every member participates each spring, is the source of the Fellowship and Scholarship funds. Mrs. Frederick A. Morrison, A.

Shrine Club Planning Fall Luau

The Palm Springs Shrine Club welcomed president Robert Winslow and his wife back from an Hawaiian cruise with Al Malaika Temple Shriners with a poolside Ladies Night party at the Biltmore Hotel Tuesday evening.

The gala party, arranged by club treasurer Dr. James W. Scott, was so successful that a similar one is planned for the fall season. The attendance filled the poolside garden.

A delicious buffet dinner... which brought Shriners, wives and guests back for seconds... was capped with Hawaiian dances by the Marta Scott Dancers, and dancing to Danny Kuana's South Sea Islanders.

Exemplar Degrees Awarded

Seven members of Beta Sigma Phi were awarded Exemplar Degrees Monday evening in the dining room at Sambo's. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Ileen Burkholder, president of Xi Theta Eta Chapter, assisted by members Marge Griffith, Marilyn Mason, Bernice Bottorff, Dorothy Reed and Margie Thatcher. Symbolic candles and the traditional white roses decorated the attractive table and jeweled pins, and a degree signed by the sorority's founder Walter Ross was awarded each new Exemplar. The installation ceremony included a union reading of the high ideals which each new member accepts as a personal and community responsibility.

Following the formal award presentation, the group was seated and served dessert and coffee. During the informal discussion, members of Xi Theta Eta were reminded again that Monday, the 23rd, will be the final meeting for the season, at which time Secret Sisters for the year will be revealed and new officers will be installed. The meeting will be held at the home of Marilyn Mason.

Jewelry Expert Suggests Mixing

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Don't be stuffy and unimaginative about your jewelry wardrobe.

This advice comes from Joan Castle Joffe, who owns a jewelry rental service which supplies about 90 per cent of the pieces used in TV and movies.

Mix costume jewelry, such as gold, silver and platinum, Mrs. Joffe said. Combine antique and modern jewelry "as you would furniture in your home." Don't adhere to the rule of gold jewelry for daytime, diamonds for night.

If you must wear a watch in formal affairs, have one set in a diamond ring or a bracelet with a cover over the watch face.

"Pearls are unimaginative," Mrs. Joffe added, "and school jewelry, such as a class ring, indicates an emotionally immature person. If you wear a class ring, you're hanging on to the past or are afraid of the future."

Jobs Daughters Install Sunday

The International Order of Jobs Daughters will hold an open installation of officers Sunday, May 22nd, at 4 p.m., at the Masonic Temple on Ramon Road.

Mary Ellen Matthews will be installed as Honored Queen; Melinda Watkins, senior princess; Mary Beebe, junior princess; Vicki Biss, guide and Janice Woods, marshal. Outgoing queen is Doris Sing.

All interested parties are invited to attend.

Tau Sigma Holds Last Meeting Until Next Fall

Tau Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its last business meeting of the season Monday evening at the home of Charlene Hicks in Palm Desert. The meeting was presided over by president, Mary Nugent.

An interesting program was presented following the business meeting with each member participating. Members were asked beforehand to bring individual place settings from home and demonstrate their skill in setting up informal and formal settings. First prize went to Andra Crowell and second to Pat Wahlberg.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to members and guests attending, including Marian Weigel, Alice Altland, Mary Nugent, Charlene Lotz, Andra Crowell, Almeda Stone, Madelyn Gallerani and Lois Shope. Tentative plans have been set for a swim party to be held at the Palm Desert home of Alice Altland the end of June.

Rumwells Fete Son's Birthday

A birthday celebration Thursday at the Lillian Drive home of the Arthur Rumwells honored their son Saxon who arrived home Tuesday evening from El Toro Marine Corps Base where he is a jet pilot with the United States Marines.

The party which was for the immediate family, included the Rumwells' daughter, Chicki who is home for a month from New York where she is associated with Time Magazine.

Lockwood Tells Clubwomen of Work at The Boys Club

Calling 1959 a year of progress as far as the Palm Springs Boys Club is concerned, Ray Lockwood reported on Boys Club work Tuesday when he addressed the luncheon meeting of Soroptimists at Hotel Oasis. With 689 members with ages ranging from 8-18, the Club takes care of an average of 108 boys a day, Lockwood said. He also told the interested group of the "Ten Commandments for Parents" or "Sam Levenson's Home Remedies for Juvenile Delinquency" listing ways in which parents can help prevent delinquency, as follows:

1. Thou shalt guard thy children in the home and on the street.
2. Thou shalt make thy home a sanctuary of love and devotion.
3. Thou shalt honor the teachers of thy children and teach thy children to honor them.
4. Thou shalt not condone the faults of thy children through a misguided sense of loyalty.
5. Thou shalt teach thy children respect for the law and keep them from the companionship of children who indicate disrespect for the law.
6. Thou shalt not lead thy child into temptation by providing him with the means thereof:—to wit, — too much money, a car and adult privileges.
7. Thou shalt enforce decency in the dress of thy daughters, and dignity in the dress of thy sons.
8. Thou shalt protect the morals of thy children from the indiscretions of youthful ardor and inexperience.
9. Thou shalt conduct thine own affairs in such a manner as to set an example worthy of imitation by the children.
10. Thou shalt not permit thy children to bear arms except in the service of their country.

Girl Scout Handicraft on Display

Craftwork by Desert Sky Girl Scout Council Brownie Troop 106 is on display this week in the children's department of Welwood Memorial Library. Altogether delightful, the exhibit has its humorous aspects as well as artistic.

In calling attention to the exhibit Mrs. Alice Kessel, acting Neighborhood Chairman and Leader of the Troop, said that the Troop is made up of second and third grade girls from Katherine Finch School: Linda Adler, Dana Bengtson, Sandra Bosch, Cathy Bird, Barbara Crabtree, Helen Frost, Tina Glemley, Beth Ann Land, Martha Morales, Helene Moss, Lydia Murray, Nancy Pearce, Pat Pearce, Barbara Steinberg, Danna Torrance and Vana Veness. Pat Morales and Marguerite Bengtson, Mrs. Lillian Murray is co-leader of this artistic group.

Mrs. Kessel has announced a date that is important for Brownies and prospective Brownies... Tuesday, May 24... when a meeting of mothers has been called for 1 p.m. at Palm Springs Scout House. Miss Jean Hoff, executive director of Desert Sky Council will speak on "What Scouting Means to Your Daughter."

A baby sitter will be provided.

VFW Auxiliary Wins Awards at Convention

The local Auxiliary to Frontier Post 5987 Veterans of Foreign Wars won nine awards at the District Convention held in El Centro at the Barbara Worth Hotel on Sunday.

Awards were for youth activities, publicity, legislative, essay, civil defense, membership, classroom helper, hospital and community service.

Local members attending were Katherine Spargur, Louise Paul, Mildred Oistad, and Marvel Barrett.

Elected to 22nd District posts were Marvel Barrett, senior vice president; Louise Paul, treasurer and junior past presidents, Mildred Oistad and Katherine Spargur. Mrs. May Goodrich of Beaumont is new district president.

For the next three Tuesdays Soroptimists will hold their meetings at Palm Springs Lanes, president Trixie Jarrette announced. Next week's program will be Educational.

Roundup Ticket Sales Booming

Mrs. Dan Flax, known and loved by Palm Springs theatre goers as Phyllis Flax, stepped out of the center stage this week and into the ticket box as she headed up ticket sales for tomorrow night's Backstage Roundup at Deep Well, a stellar benefit performance for Ferrall's Deep Well Playhouse.

Working with her is a large committee including Mrs. George Morris, C. C. Hutchens, Robert Tarr, Ida and David Itkin, Joan Wilcoxson, Zella Jaffa, Helen Schulte, Helen Haskins, Hy Finerman and Ace Hudkins.

In addition to their work, members of Junior Women's Club are manning a downtown booth to sell Roundup tickets. Tickets, at $10 each, will also be available at the door tomorrow night.

Mike Ferrall and Marrian Walters themselves head up the entertainment committee for the all-star show, being aided and abetted by Desert Sun's George Laine, and Harper Goff. The long list of entertainers who will contribute their services, was joined this week by the Bonaires who will trek to Palm Springs to appear in this show. The quintet which plays for the Dinah Shore Show, will provide music for dancing between acts.

Everything has been donated for the turkey-beef-ham buffet dinner, with a hard-working committee in charge, including Mrs. Morris, Edna Sheklow, Mary Jones, Charlotte Hutchens and Evelyn Tarr.

Around 500 to 700 persons are expected to attend the gala pool-of-Golden Door and Jan Ogden of Beverly Hills.

The George Lovetts will be hosting a party which includes his sister Mrs. May Rides, who is here from Bristol, England, the Harry Carrolls of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moss, Mrs. Hilda Walls of Hollywood, Jo Helton of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. William Hodges Jr. of Los Angeles and Frank Chase.

Also: Mesdames Dolph Obergfel, Elaine Childs Elser, Gitta Alpar, Austin McManus, Zella Jaffa, Max Grone, William Tackett, Valerie Valkis, Hortense Murray, Grace Jablow, Bea Horowich, Harry Friedman, Russell Parson, and side affair, with advance ticket sales heavy.

Ticket holders include: Messrs. and Mrs. Tony Curti (Janet Leigh), Allan Jones, Francis Gudger, Glenn Austin, Dan Wagner, Henry Wilcoxson, Earle Strobe, George Morris, Frank Bogert, Victor Hugo-Vidal, Joel Stone, Maurice Teitelbaum, Roland Richter, Cliff Sawyer, Randolph Christie, Edward Canby, Howard Hudock, Marty Cobin, Hy Finerman, Jack Baron, Al Gardiner, Bruno Di Grandi, Leo Athans, Bill Maidhoff, Jack Dengler, Sidney Greenlead, Robert Tarr, John Coleman, Tony Cosentino and party, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Baldwin, Dr. and Mrs. Claude Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Fitzmorris, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Shaffell, Deborah Szekely

Messrs. Bobby Ramos, Jerry Nathanson, Cliff Henderson, Ed Landfield, Roy Fey, Bob McCall, Bob Kennedy and Judge Allan Fisher.

Contract Renewed

Rifleman Chuck Hits 'Home Run'

By RICK DU BROW
UPI Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Chuck Connors, a flamboyant fellow who cussed at umpires in Shakespearean dialogue when he played professional baseball, has been signed to star in ABC-TV's "The Rifleman" for another year.

It will mark the third year on video for the successful series, in which the tall, raw-boned actor portrays a peace-loving frontier widower who tries to cut out a life for himself and his young son.

"THINGS ARE going so well and the sponsor is so happy that I think we'll be back for at least three more years," 39-year-old Connors said in his dressing room at Republic Studios.

"I go to a lot by the popular reception I've gotten on trips. I don't pay attention to ratings any more — although ours are good."

"IT MEANS MORE to me when I go to a place like Walla Walla, Wash., where I have part interest in a TV station (KNBS-TV), and people come from the woods — from everywhere — to say hello."

"Mothers would come up and say, 'My children watch your show' — and that's important to me because I don't think of 'The Rifleman' as a western. We tried to make it a family show with a western background — a sort of 'Father Knows Best' of the frontier days."

CONNORS, AMIABLE, blond and the father of four sons, has had considerably more success as an actor than as a first baseman, where his skills were not quite equal to his histrionics.

Born in Brooklyn, he earned several big league chances with the erstwhile Brooklyn Dodgers, but they kept sending him back to the minors for "more experience." Eventually, he was traded to the Chicago Cubs, who finally farmed him out to their Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast League.

THE FATES couldn't have done better by Connors. Near Hollywood, he admits, he was at home with the other hams. He earned the title of the "Laurence Olivier of the Diamond." Controversial in interviews, he achieved immortality of a sort by telling Zsa Zsa Gabor to "shut up" on a local TV show when she interrupted one of his gags.

"You've got to do that to women like that once in a while," he said.

IN 1932, AFTER becoming a favorite of actors, directors and producers who were baseball fans, he made his debut in MGM's "Pat and Mike." He sees nothing illogical about his transformation.

"Any time a batter is called out on strikes, he acts plenty when he returns to the dugout," he said. "After all, he has to make the manager believe the umpire was wrong in his decision."

On the diamond, Connors was an uninhibited soul.

"ONCE, WITH THE Montreal Royals, I got down on my hands and knees and prayed at bat," he said. "Plenty of times I told off umpires by quoting Shakespeare — it would drive them nuts because the quotes were from left field."

"There was one time I didn't like a call at the plate, and I turned around and told the ump, 'The whips and scorns of time, eh?' He said, 'What'dya mean?' I said, 'Oh, you wouldn't understand.' Another time, I got called out sliding into third and roared at the umpire, 'You foul and muddy mettle creature! How could he throw me out of the game? He didn't know what I was saying.'"

O'BRIAN STEVENS TO BE 'PERSONED'

Hugh O'Brian, television's gun-slinging Wyatt Earp, and Craig Stevens of "Peter Gunn" fame and his wife, film star Alexis Smith, will be visited "Person to Person" by Charles Collingwood Friday, May 20, 10:30-11 p.m., on the CBS Television Network.

O'Brian will be seen at his home in the Santa Monica hills near Hollywood. Stevens and his wife will be visited at their home in North Hollywood.

Hugh O'Brian, who has been a television star for more than five years, appears in motion pictures, has starred in non-western television and has made records, spent most of his boyhood in Winnetka, Ill. Two of his schoolmates were Charlton Heston and Rock Hudson.

Craig Stevens' appearance on movie and television screens is the result of a college acting role while attending the University of Kansas, where he was studying to become a dentist. He was seen by a talent scout and immediately was sent off to Hollywood. Stevens met Alexis Smith when they were unknown stock actors at Warner Brothers. They have been married for 16 years.

'BOWLING STARS' ON KTTV TONIGHT

Al Faragalli, from Paterson, New Jersey, will be bowling against Cleveland's Johnny King and Detroit's George Young, in two 3-game matches, each with a $1,000 at stake, during KTTV's "Bowling Stars," Friday, May 20, 9-10 p.m., Channel 11.

Faragalli has been a bowler for the past 26 years, has a lifetime average of over 200 and favors a four-step delivery. He is the National BPAA Doubles Champion and took sixth place with 1904 in the 1956 ABC. He has racked up many titles in New Jersey, including State Doubles 1945; Match Game Champion 1955 and State All-Events in 1953 and 1954.

King, who has been a bowler for 16 years, has a 204 lifetime average. He placed second in the ABC Doubles in 1952 and was the "Cleveland Kegler" Singles League Champion in 1949 and 1952. He won the All-Events Central States in 1949 and has bowled two ABC sanctioned 300 games.

Young, a member of Phiffer Bowling and Detroit Major, has bowled for 25 years. He won the National Doubles in 1947 and 1955 and took a fourth in 1957. Young rolled 1908 in the ABC All-Events this past year and boasts an ABC 10 year average of 205, a standout record in that category.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Citrus Tree Owners Get Advice on Care

Fortunately during May we have been enjoying cool weather most of the time. However, we have ahead of us June, July, August and the first half of September which will—unless a miracle happens—load us up with the customary high spots on thermometers.

To Mr. Amateur Gardener who happens to have comparatively young citrus trees and especially of the dwarf type, we would suggest looking into the question of shade. Unless the main trunk is in complete shade during the hot months we would suggest covering the lower parts with heavy tape or, better still, with the waxed covers available at local nurseries. Some gardeners also use these waxed papers as protection against cats scraping at the bark of expensive young trees.

UNLESS THE foliage of citrus trees is sufficiently dense to protect the young fruit from being scorched palm fronds can be used. These can be obtained from date growers or even from local nurseries. Generally the Dwarf Citrus are more prone to suffer from scorching.

Irrigation of citrus is very important during these hot summer months. In fact the raising of good citrus depends mostly on the method of irrigation. While roses can safely be watered twice a day or even three times without harm citrus can be ruined by too frequent irrigation.

WE KNOW OF A few gardens in town where at least 10 citrus trees are watered through sunken pipes that feed water underground. Unless the gardener has an agrometer in constant use we doubt the success of this method. Personally we prefer the basin method of watering. With a basin that is five inches deep and has a diameter with the perimeter reaching the outer circle of leaves we have had splendid success with our watering system.

Under some conditions over-watering can be costly and harmful. For instance, water is sometimes used to leach the alkali through the ashes. The iron sulphate put around the growing Poinsettias, the sulphate of ammonia around the citrus bed, the rose food around the roses, the iron around the Pelargonium, Geranium and Asters all eventually leach through the sandy soil. Hence the timed feedings.

WHEN HEALTHY the leaves of citrus are a resplendent green, when one sees a weakly yellow coming into the leaves you can feel assured there is something wrong. As a rough table of irrigation periods locally November through January once a month, February through March once every three weeks, April through June every two weeks, July through September once a week, if October turns out hot once a week also.

Most of the trees that are indigenous to the desert are drought resistant but among the many trees that are not indigenous locally is the Carob, splendid specimens of which may be seen along the border of Thunderbird Country Club—it is of very ancient origin and is mentioned in the Old Testament of the Bible. It can be secured locally and is easily grown but, when mature, should be trimmed like those at Thunderbird. Of all non-indigenous trees it seems to thrive on little water and has deep-green leaves that are not large but dainty.—T.G.M.

The teeth of rodents never stop growing.

PRINCESS EL DORADO and John Moon, president of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce point out the newly constructed decorative entrance leading into exclusive El Dorado Palms at the westerly entry. The luxury development features an expansive private green adjoining both Indian Wells and Eldorado golf courses. One of the outstanding attractions is a 100,000 ton natural rock outcropping which contains a number of cascading waterfalls. ### TWO SANDPIPER MODELS STAY OPEN

Two of the nationally recognized Sandpiper model apartments will continue to be open daily at the site of the own-your-own cottages, sales head Jack Enders reported this week.

Featured recently in two national magazines, the two models show the latest in decor and bring to visitors many new ideas in carefree desert living. Created by Vee Nisley of Rancho Mirage, the Desert decorator was just named to the National Society of Interior Decorators for her outstanding work at the Sandpiper and other desert-area custom homes.

Priced from $12,500, the Sandpiper features two-bedroom, two-bath apartments complete with built-in kitchen, pool, landscaping, air conditioning and all maintenance. Even maid and linen services are available, the developers, George M. Holstein and Sons, stressed.

Now in its fourth unit, the Sandpiper is located just off Highway 111 on Highway 74 in Palm Desert about twenty minutes through Palm Springs.

Bamar Vista Has Brisk Activity

YUCCA VALLEY—Bamar Vista, newest of the deluxe subdivisions to be opened in Yucca Valley, located between Onaga Trail and 70th Drive just east of the main part of town, and developed by Bales Marriott, owner and operator of the Yucca Valley Drug Store, has shown brisk activity in the first two weeks of selling, according to I. J. Moulton, sales manager of Monument Realty Co., sales agent.

Lots in Bamar Vista are all 18,000 square feet or more, and feature Joshua Trees, Yuccas and other desert growth, making it one of the most desirable tracts in the area.

Ceremonies Open Little League Play Tonight

8th Year Of Action To Start

Eighth annual Palm Springs Little League season will be launched tonight at the Polo Grounds when a double-header will be staged following opening ceremonies slated for around 7 o'clock.

The Nellie Coffman Junior High School band will play for the ceremonies, the managers of the six teams will introduce their teams, the first ball will be tossed out and the season will be on.

ALBERT G. "WOODY" Woods, president of the Little League said there'd be no long speeches or other delays and that the opening ceremonies would get right down to action.

Opening ceremonies have been divided and tomorrow night there will be another special event when boys who have passed the Little League age will be presented certificates by the managers of the team with which they have performed.

PRESENTATION of awards to the "graduates" will be made between the first and second games tomorrow night.

To be honored with certificates and a Little League pen and pencil sets are:

Braves — Bill Ausicker, Joe Coler, Jack Frost, Paul Summers, Jr., Mark Tomlinson.

Rotary Wheels — Bill Bagley, John Bunker, Edward Peterson, Mark Fitzgerald, Thomas Janulis.

P. S. Water Co. — Stephen Brooks, Hugh Curtis, Geoffrey Exbitz, Charles Flores, Michael Rech, Charles Sills, Lloyd Chaisson.

Lincoln — Mercury — James Gomes, Alan Johansen, Danny Knowlton, Douglas Roberts, Stephen Williams.

TONIGHT'S DOUBLE-HEADER matches Hathaway Braves and Junior Police in the first game, about 7:30 and Rotary and Palm Springs Water Company in the second at around 8:45.

Tomorrow, Lincoln — Mercury meets City National Bank in the first game at 7 p.m. and Hathaway Braves and Rotary at 8:30.

The six teams in this year's race are the Braves, Rotary, Junior Police, P. S. Water Company, Lincoln — Mercury and City National Bank.

ALL GAMES until the new Little League park is completed, will be played at the Polo Grounds. After that, early in June, games will be played Monday, Wednesday and Friday with only Friday's games at the Polo Grounds, President Woods said.

Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce is conducting a "Bucks for Boards" campaign to build bleachers and other needed items at the new Little League park.

Robinson Put Out of Action For Run Out

BOSTON — (UPI) — The Massachusetts Boxing Commission will decide here today whether Sugar Ray Robinson's brand new suspensions will prevent his return to the ring for a fight with Paul Pender, June 10.

Robinson, former middleweight and welterweight champion, was suspended indefinitely by the Maryland Athletic Commission at Baltimore Thursday night for failure to fulfill a fight contract in Baltimore last Monday night.

At Tokyo, Japan, today Anthony Macaroni of Providence, R.I., president of the National Boxing Assn., said the NBA concurs in recognizing Robinson's suspension.

Macaroni, in Tokyo for a bantamweight title fight, said the NBA was 100 per cent behind the Maryland commission.

In New York, Robinson said, "I'll go right ahead with my training for the Pender fight. Our contract was signed long before the Maryland suspension. My only comment on the Maryland action is: This is just another case of American prejudice."

Herman Greenberg, chairman of the Massachusetts commission, ordered a meeting for today to determine a course of action about the Pender-Robinson fight.

Jordan Works Out Four Rounds Today

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — Welterweight champion Don Jordan scheduled a four-round sparring session today in preparation for his title defense next Friday against Benny (Kid) Paret.

DODGERS AGAIN NOSED OUT BY CINCINNATI

Clemente Boosts Pirates Into National League Lead

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

They shout "arriba, arriba" when Roberto Clemente bats at Forbes Field and perhaps no player better typifies the "rise" of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Long regarded as a baseball diamond in the rough since the Pirates "stole" him in the draft in 1954, the 25-year-old native of Carolina, Puerto Rico, has developed overnight into one of the National League's shining stars.

He's challenging San Francisco's Willie Mays for the batting lead today and some experts think he'll be the Pirates' first champion in 20 years.

Clemente went on a 4-for-5 tear, two doubles and two singles, Thursday night when the Pirates whipped the St. Louis Cardinals 8-3, and took a half-game grip on first place. He's hit in 14 of the Pirates' last 15 games to raise his average to .372 only four points behind Mays' .376.

Even more astonishing has been Clemente's sudden development into a power hitter. He has never previously hit more than seven homers or driven in more than 60 runs in a full season but he's already hit six homers and knocked in 29 runs this year.

The Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-4, for their 13th victory in 16 games and the Chicago Cubs downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2, in other National League games. The Kansas City Athletics defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 7-4, in the only American League game.

Vada Pinson tripled home Eddie Kasko with two out in the ninth inning as the Reds swept a two-game series with the Dodgers and moved past idle Milwaukee into third place. Pinson's decisive blow off Sandy Koufax, who fanned 10 but lost his fourth straight game, came after a bunt single and theft of second base by Elio Chacon and Kasko's single tied the score. Jim Brosnan, last of three Cincinnati pitchers, picked up his first victory of the season.

Littler in 3-Way Tie for Top Spot At Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — (UPI) — Gene Littler, the man from Singing Hills, Calif., is back on his game and that's bad news for the other touring golfers.

The 29-year-old Littler, an also-ran for the first four months this year, gave an inkling that he was returning when he missed the National Invitation title at Fort Worth last week by only one stroke.

Then Thursday, he took up where he left off with a sparkling 67 to share the lead with two unknowns in the $20,000 Hot Springs Open. Littler, who rarely evaluates himself, said: "I'm doing pretty good," which was as much as he would say last year when he led the circuit with five victories.

Tied at 68 were Stan Leonard, Don January, Pete Barker, Bill Collins and Bruce Crampton. Ten others carried 69 into today's second round.

Sharing first with the favored Littler were Al Geiberger and Bobby Nichols, two rookies who have never won a tournament.

Geiberger, 22, of Studio City, Calif., is known as a fast starter in the short time (five months) he has been on the tour.

Nichols, 24, a college golf star while at Texas A&M, has been a pro since last July and joined the circuit at Phoenix, Ariz.

Bagdad, Amerigo Top Fast Field in L.A. 'Cap

INGLEWOOD — (UPI) — Bagdad, who showed his liking for the Hollywood Park track last year by winning the $100,000 Hollywood Derby, makes his 1960 debut here Saturday in the $50,000 Los Angeles Handicap.

The Los Angeles ranks as one of the three top sprint races in the nation, along with Santa Anita's San Carlos and the Carter Handicap in New York.

The seven-furlong dash had been expected to bring out Fleet Nasrullah, winner of the Hollywood Premiere Handicap on opening day. But when that speedster was assigned 129 pounds, owner E.B. Johnston decided to let him sit it out.

HOWEVER, the absence of Fleet Nasrullah did not make the race a one-horse affair. Among those expected to oppose Bagdad were Amerigo, leading money-winner in the nation thus far; the speedy Clandestine and the entry of Ole Fols and Finnegan from the barn of Neil S. McCarthy.

Amerigo was third last year in the Los Angeles to Hillsdale and the English-bred horse is in top condition for his summer campaign, blowing out for Saturday's race in 45 seconds.

With Fleet Nasrullah out, Bagdad picks up top weight of 123 pounds, one more than Amerigo. Jockey Willie Shoemaker passed up a chance to ride Victoria Park in the Preakness Saturday to handle Bagdad. Dave Erb handles Amerigo.

CLANDESTINE, second to Fleet Nasrullah in the Premiere, gets the jockey services of veteran Johnny Longden who became available when Fleet Nasrullah passed up the race. The swift runner carries 116 pounds.

Other likely starters prior to the taking of entries for the race included The Searcher and Prince Mark.

Wendell Leeling, rapidly becoming known as the longshot jockey, booted Casrah home to win Thursday's featured Westwood Purse by a half-length for a $14.20 payoff.

He won the first race with Barbie Ann to return $35.80. Casrah raced the five furlongs in 58 3-5 seconds.

Venetian Way Tabbed Tops In Preakness

Small Field to go Tomorrow in 84th Running of Classic

BALTIMORE, Md. — (UPI) — Sunny Blue Farm's Venetian Way, the Kentucky Derby winner, heads a probable field of six expected to be entered today for Saturday's 84th running of the $150,000 added Preakness Stakes at Pimlico.

Two of the colts, Llangollen Farm's Divine Comedy and Green Dunes Stable's Celtic Ash, beat the gun and were entered for the middle jewel in racing's triple crown on Thursday. Turfhand's Bally Ache, Windfields Farm's Victoria Park, and C.R. Mac Stable's T. V. Lark complete the smallest Preakness field since Hill Gail won in 1950.

ONLY ONE HORSE was without a rider. Trainer Horatio Luro canvassed the jockey colonies throughout the East for the best saddlemate available for Victoria Park.

Jockey Bill Hartack, who rode Venetian Way two weeks ago at Churchill Downs, again rides for Isaac Blumber, master of Sunny Blue Farm.

"Bobby Ussery rides Bally Ache. Bally Ache is a strong second choice at 8-5 with Victoria Park third choice at 6-1.

CELTIC ASH, with Sam Boulmetis riding, was rated at 8-1 with Divine Comedy, Larry Gilligan up, at 15-1 and T.V. Lark, Willie Harmatz in the saddle, at 20-1.

With six starters the Preakness will be worth a total of $175,100 with a net purse of $121,000 to the winner. Second place is worth $30,000, third $15,000 and fourth $7,500. Thus only two starters will come out of the race without returning a profit on the total of $1,600 it cost to start.

Lt. Meeken, Top Marine Diver, to Show Skill Here

Lt. Ed Meeken, national-famed diver, will be featured in the "Backstage Roundup" to be presented tomorrow night around the swimming pool at Deep Well Hotel.

The Marine officer, who is the present one and three meter diving champion of the Atlantic Coast Amateur Athletic Union, will deliver an exhibition of skill and dexterity from the standard board at the hotel's pool.

Lieutenant Meeken was one of several Marines who participated in the recent swimming exhibitions at Palm Springs, which were avidly received by local swimming and diving fans.

The officer, based at Marine Corps Base, Twenty-nine Palms, is to be featured in the show which will also highlight a galaxy of stage, screen and TV stars.

Call Sounded for Sponsors, Coaches For Palm Springs Pony Leaguers

More than 65 teenagers have turned out for Pony League practice, and Palm Springs now has only two teams, and one of these might lose its sponsor.

Ray Lockwood, director of the Boys Club and active in the Pony League, announced today the need for sponsors and coaches with the new league.

Plans for the local teams will be the setting up of four teams, to play between June 10 and July 20.

The Palm Springs Elks Lodge now supports one of the teams, and the Coachella Valley Contractors Association has sponsored the second. Lockwood said that he understands that the CVCA is planning on dropping their sponsorship.

"If we are to have a Pony League," said Lockwood, "we are going to need some adult help." He asked that anyone who can help with the teams contact him.

The Pony League is helped through the cooperation of City Recreation Department, and was previously run in the Coachella Valley Recreation District League.

There is need for at least two new sponsors.

Snead 5 Strokes Back In Own Tournament

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — (UPI) — Skinny Gardiner Dickinson stood two strokes up on the field—and five ahead of favored Sammy Snead — as 62 professionals went into the second round of the Sam Snead Festival Golf Tournament.

Dickinson finished with a sparkling five-under-par 65 Thursday after most of the others were in. It was the second best competitive round the 5-foot-10, 127-pound protégé of Ben Hogan ever had shot. But he was holding no illusions about pulling down the $2,000 first prize money.

"YOU STILL HAVE to watch out for Snead," said Dickinson. "This is his home course and that 70 yesterday may be par for others but for Snead it's like four-over-par."

Dickinson showed 'em how it's done on the greens, using only 29 putts on his 18 holes. He didn't have a single bogey. Four of his five birdie putts were eight to 16 feet long. He looked like Hogan on the greens, as well as off the tee.

"We're both small and I decided he was the guy to copy," said the 32-year-old Palm Beach, Fla., pro.

CITY'S TOP NETTERS AT RACQUET CLUB

City Tennis Tourney Semi-Finals Saturday

Semi-finals will get under way tomorrow at 9 a.m. in the 20th Annual City Tennis Championships when Frank Ripley and Mort Uman square off in the Men's Singles at the Racquet Club. At 10 a.m. Maurice Smith, defending champion, and Bill Hayes meet in the other half of the semi-finals.

Ripley went into the semis when he defeated Steven Rosen 6-1, 6-0 in the quarter finals last Sunday. Uman won over Gary Grossman in the quarters in a stiff match, 5-7, 6-3, 7-5.

SMITH DEFEATED Harry Campbell in the quarters, 6-4, 6-2, and Bill Hayes won over Don Williams, another former city champion, in another long match, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

In Men's Doubles, Fred Morris and Bill Hayes will meet Mort Uman and Don Williams in the semi-finals at 12 noon and Smith and Alex Jablow will meet Al Linnick and Gary Grossman in the other bracket of the semi-finals.

Morris and Hayes defeated Don Platz and Harry Campbell in the quarter - finals, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 and Uman and Williams won their quarter - final match from Fred Rubin and Briggs Bosworth, 6-3, 6-3.

SMITH AND JABLOW defeated Eric and David Teitelbaum in the quarter - final round 6-1, 6-4 and Linnick and Grossman went into the semi - finals with a win over Steve Rosen and Gene Neischuler, 6-1, 6-2.

Dave Gillam, Racquet Club tennis pro who is general chairman of the tournament, said that the winners of Saturday's semi-finals singles matches would meet at 10 a.m. Sunday at the Racquet Club in the finals and that the doubles finals would start at noon Sunday.

Tamarisk Hosts Ninth Desert Rat Tourney

Approximately 100 desert area golfers are expected to tee off tomorrow at Tamarisk Country Club in the Ninth Annual Desert Rat golf tournament.

First foursome will tee off at 8 a.m.

The field comes from all of the local golf clubs and their guests and residents of the vast desert area. They are making up their own foursomes and starting times.

THE ONLY STIPULATION Tamarisk makes is that all players have validated handicap cards.

Play is over a 36-hole medal route, 18 holes Saturday and the final 18 on Sunday. There will be prizes for low gross and low net in each of the two divisions of the tournament, Class A, 0 to 13 handicaps and Class B, 14 and over.

Most of the local golfers who were in the Local Yokel at O'Donnell Golf Club Tuesday and Wednesday and are playing in the Ranch Golf Club Pro-Am today, are expected to try their skill at Tamarisk tomorrow and Sunday.

Harry Crista is defending low gross champion in Class A and Maynard Laswell in Class B. Low net defenders are Eddie King in Class A and Russell Wade in Class B.

THE EVENT is the last tournament of the season at Tamarisk Country Club. Charles Hanson is tournament chairman.

Tamarisk golf course will remain open during the summer although the clubhouse will close early in June.

Changes are planned on three of the greens, however, and 2 and 7 will not be available for use until fall.

Desert Golf Fans To See Open at Circle R Ranch

Many Palm Springs residents are expected to take part in and be spectators at the San Diego County Open Golf tournament to be played next week at the Circle R Ranch golf course near Escondido.

Herb Rauch, manager of the club, announced today that he is expecting a gallery of more than 3,000 persons to watch the pro-amateur play.

A $1,000 hole-in-one purse will be offered as a highlight of the tournament, with a total of $3,000 in prizes to be awarded the professionals.

Rauch, formally of Palm Springs said that reservations were pouring in from the desert area for both players and gallery.

The club, which is in its third year of operation under the present ownership and management, has only completed a 2,000,000 gallon lake at a cost of some $20,000.

Tribe, Coronado In CIF Playoffs On Local Courts

Palm Springs High School boys' tennis team and Coronado High's hopefuls, were engaged in the second round of the California Interscholastic Federation state tennis finals this afternoon on the local courts.

Play is under CIF rules, each singles player meeting every other singles player on the opposite team in one set. Each win counts a point. Four singles players are on each team.

Two doubles teams play under the same rules but meet in two sets with each set counting one and one half points toward the total score.

Coach Seamus Nunan of the Indians who haven't lost a match this year and haven't had a point scored against them in their last two matches, has been drilling his charges under CIF rules all week.

Play started at one o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Upchurch Ends Affiliation With Henderson

Mrs. Frances Upchurch, prominent legal secretary in Palm Springs, Southern California and Washington, D. C., since 1930, announced today the end of her association with the law office of Benjamin W. Henderson.

Mrs. Upchurch is planning travel during the summer as her work schedule permits. Tentative fall plans are for resumption of legal secretarial work in Palm Springs.

Mrs. Upchurch joined the law office of Jerome L. Richardson, Riverside, after service with the United States attorney's office in Los Angeles, and the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C. She served with Richardson's office for more than 20 years, and came to Palm Springs in 1954 with the office of Richardson and Henderson. Attorney Richardson was deceased in 1958.

2 Couples Given 'Going-Away' Fete

By RUTH STEINER

Monday afternoon, a summer "going-away" party was co-hosted by Mrs. J. B. Schutz and Mrs. Ralph Caplinger in the Candelwood home of Mrs. Schultz. A few friends were invited for luncheon and cards, in honor of Mrs. George Townsend, who with Colonel Townsend will soon be leaving for the summer months, and for Mrs. Wilber Bear, who with her husband will depart soon for their fourth around the world tour.

Mrs. Bear's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Burney Lehman of Greensburg, Ind., will jet out to Los Angeles where the Bears will meet them, and the four will then jet to Hawaii and on to the Orient, expecting to return home around the middle of August. One of the hostesses, Mrs. Schutz, will leave Sunday for a two weeks visit to her home state, Washington. She will spend some time in Seattle and also in Lind, where she grew up.

A recent new home owner here is Virgil Smith; though he is not a newcomer to the desert as he has visited his cousin, Mrs. Telford Thronson and her husband many times. He recently purchased the Burch home on old Prospectors Trail and plans on residing here permanently. Smith formerly lived in Los Angeles and is associated with the State Board of Equalization.

Fresno visitors en route to Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Fusselman stopped for a few days here to visit with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tummel. The two families both lived in Long Beach at same time. Mrs. Tummel's parents, the John Kazoors of Long Beach are spending a two weeks vacation here with them on Santa Rosa Way.

A MOST APPROPRIATE place to spend a vacation was the Desert Air Hotel, Palm Desert Airport, for Major Jack De Wolfe, aero director for the E. F. MacDonald Company of Detroit, Mich. De Wolfe is the world's most traveled pilot. "Desert Air is truly flyer's paradise," De Wolfe comments. A former Air Force flight officer, De Wolfe once flew former President Hoover around the world. Major and Louise Slater were delighted this weekend when old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walton finally were able to be here for the annual Luau held at Shadow Mountain Club. This event had been anticipated for several years, but due to business reasons of some of the group, it was not an actuality until this year and all thoroughly enjoyed being together again to celebrate the party. Sunday the four couples enjoyed luncheon at Desi Arnez.

Motoring out to Las Vegas with friends from Wichita, Kans., Mrs. J. C. Shearman flew here to visit with her daughter, Joanne Taylor, after having spent a few days enjoying the shows in Las Vegas. She will leave Sunday for her home.

Midweek guests at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Boynton Jones were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Stanford of Point Loma, Calif. Mr. Stanford is counselor of the Lions International and was here for the installation of the Coachella Lion's Club officers this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sensiba are home in their Quailbrush Street home for a short time after having spent over a month in Texas visiting and fishing while in Rockport, which is on the Gulf. While there they visited their son and family, the Larry Sensibas and welcomed a new granddaughter, Teresa Marie, in San Antonio. They also visited former Palm Desert residents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Grayson who are now residing in San Antonio, but will be well remembered by many people as they were residents here for a number of years.

A weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Chase, IV, on Willow Street, was Elaine Key-wauka, now residing in Los Angeles, but at one time was a secretary to Mr. Chase when he resided in Chicago, Ill. While here, the Chases entertained Miss Key-wauka at the Desert Air Hotel for cocktails and dinner on Saturday evening.

Friends of Mrs. George Odiorne will be glad to know that she is slowly recuperating from a badly sprained ligament in her ankle. She hopes soon to be off the "getting around" list and enjoy her former active life.

A group of 12 ladies were co-hosted by Mrs. Belle Keightley and Mrs. Viola Brooks Wednesday when they entertained for luncheon and cards in the Keightley home. Last week, Mrs. Keightley enjoyed having an old friend as a houseguest, Mrs. J. H. Spaulding who resides in West Los Angeles.

White Sun Guest Ranch had a large crowd at their weekly outdoor steak fry on Tuesday evening. This is always a real fun party — Mrs. Helen Dengler played the organ and the guests sang many old favorites. Seen around at some of the tables were Mrs. Faye Kennebeck, her son, John, John Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Morck, Jack Macy, Vin Riley, Madeline Hall, Ed Ford, Mrs. J. C. ## Work Permits Are 'Must' for Minors

Minors planning to do work other than gardening or baby sitting during the summer school vacation must obtain work permits, Paul Summit, director of special services for the Palm Springs Unified School District emphasized today.

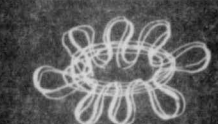

Summit explained the permits may be obtained before the applicant locates a job. Application blanks for permits may be obtained at schools in the district prior to June 10. The permits, signed by parents or guardians, should be returned to the school office before schools close June 10, Summit said. The permits expire September 17. Parents or guardians seeking health information about their school children for summer camp or travel planning should inquire at the school of enrollment prior to the close of school, Summit said.

Welding Gear Stolen in PD

PALM DESERT — Welding equipment valued at $187.30 was stolen from the Macco Corporation at San Pablo and Rosa Streets here between May 6 and May 16, the Indio sheriff's office said today.

Taken were acetylene and oxygen gauges, welding butt, and hose.

I HOPE, I HOPE, I HOPE. That's what Al Pearce is saying at the Palm Desert Rotary Club the past Friday where he gave a talk on his days in show business, emphasizing humor as a way of life. Pearce was one of the first radio comedians, starting in 1927. He became famous as a low-pressed salesman for vacuum cleaners. His line "I'm afraid there's nobody home, I hope, I hope, I hope" is still remembered 30 years later. To his left is Stu Trumbull and at right is Carl Jensen, Rotary members. (Desert Sun Photo)

AL PEARCE STILL MAKES WITH GAGS

PALM DESERT—Five minutes after he was born he started yakkin' and he's been doing so ever since.

He started doing it for the public in 1927. "That's when I started yakkin' on radio."

HE'S WELL-KNOWN as a low-pressed vacuum salesman whose line was, and still is, for that matter, "I'm afraid there's nobody home, I hope, I hope, I hope."

When he first... oh yes... for you youngsters who don't remember him... his name is Al Pearce. You probably knew it all the time for some of his radio shows have been rebroadcast and it is most likely that a Los Angeles station will start broadcasting them again.

PEARCE, SPEAKING before the Palm Desert Rotary Club last week, traced humor from its comedian stage in the 16th Century to the present and also recalled his own days on radio.

When he first was broadcasting from San Francisco anyone could appear and do their show on his program. Some of the famous names of today who appeared were Bing Crosby, Bob Crosby, Roy Rogers, Sons of the Pioneers, Pinky Tomlin and Andy Devine in

Little League Must Look Ahead

Second Week in June Observed Nationally

By PETER J. MCGOVERN
Little League Baseball, Inc.

Little League, having survived early vicissitudes and two decades of growth, still registers high in popular acceptance and esteem.

The occasion of its anniversary and attainment of the 5,000 league plateau was signalized in June when President Eisenhower, in concurrence with request of both Senate and House of Representatives, issued a proclamation designating the second week of June each year as National Little League Baseball Week. The President stated this was given in recognition of the national and community benefits resulting from Little League activity.

IN VIEW OF THE stature accorded by this proclamation, what about Little League's next 20 years?

Surely this is no time to rest on our oars. What better time could we find to bring the story of Little League, its philosophy, and its way of life to more people, and particularly to the parents of our Little Leaguers.

THE MOST important economic event of our times now bears directly upon our future. It is found in the recurring announcements that four to five million babies are being born in this country each year.

In a recent scientific treatise on television, it was reported that of all the people born on this earth, almost 80 per cent are living now.

THIS STARTLING phenomenon may be realized when we recall that at the turn of this century, people were still arriving in America by sailing ships after month-long journeys and were crossing the country in covered wagons towards gold rush in the romantic West.

That world, some of us knew, was full of wide open spaces, whereas today you take your life in your hands to cross the street in tiny towns that no one ever heard of a decade ago.

WE ARE LIVING in a generation that has seen everything of major importance happen in our own lifetimes. Practically every great development in invention, productivity, transportation, technology, farming, atomic usages, which seems to change now almost hourly, has taken place since 1900.

Many of us saw the first automobile, the first movie, the first radio and television, the first airplane, the first submarine, the first assembly line, the first guided missile, the first atomic reactor, the first fission bomb, the first miracle drugs, the first full sequence of world wars.

THE WORLD is literally exploding with people. Events at Cape Canaveral may be merely symptomatic of the teen-age advances of human beings in quest of places to go.

In one way, then, we don't have to predict our future. It is already here with us. And we know it will be even greater because romance is a reliably constant. In a very short time, say five or six years, the birth rate should take another mighty leap upwards as the children born in the years of the "baby boom" since 1945 begin to have families of their own.

MANY OF THESE parents - to be sure ex-Little Leaguers. This stupendous occurrence will move the rate of human acceleration, and of our own progress as well, to a degree that we cannot conceive.

Our only real problem now is to be able to accommodate these youngsters coming up and find places for them to try their wings.

Our present facilities, the schools and the professional agencies are already strained and it is a question whether they can continue to handle the needs of increasing population, our great educational without resorting more and more to the television classroom.

Let's face it, the young people of our country need, as before, the supervision and wise counsel of their experienced elders.

League age in the league's territory. Proper notification of the policies of the program, the local league may apply for charter. Its application is carefully screened and presented to the Franchise Committee for action. If approved, the league receives a certificate of Charter, good for one year.

Implied in the granting of Charter by Little League is good faith and an assumption that the newly formed league will bestow credit not only upon the international program but likewise upon the community or neighborhood in which it operates.

DURING THE NEXT few years an enormous influx of boys coming of age will make heavy demands upon the resources of Little League.

By 1966 there will be more than 11 million youngsters in the 9-12 year old bracket. Three in every 12 will be Little Leaguers. To accommodate them, Little League must expand its services and facilities. More adults must be trained as leaders. More support will be needed to provide expanding and new league operations.

I WILL . . .
Safeguard Little League as a national asset and help endow it with the highest possible standards.
Respect the boy as an individual. Try to understand his capabilities, limitations and problems of growing up.
Be an exemplar in the growing movement of Little League, ready to improve the estate of our youngsters whenever possible, and to find honest enjoyment in the creative service and teaching the program affords.
Recognize obligations in training boys and teaching lessons of fair play, discipline and teamwork.
Keep myself informed in basic understanding and knowledge of the objectives of the program.
Cooperate in scrupulous observance of the rules and regulations which are the strength of Little League.
Encourage volunteer support of parents, educators and all agencies devoted to the welfare of youth.
Protect the Little League franchise against exploitation and use of Little League players for purposes of commercialization or personal profit.

Getting Acquainted With LL

Little League is one of the most dynamic youth movements of our time.

It is also a means of realizing happiness in local communities through families enjoying the pleasures of working and playing together.

The purpose for which it was formed (as outlined in the Certificate of Incorporation granted January 18, 1960) is . . . "to promote in all lawful ways the interest of boys who will participate in 'Little League' Baseball and to help and voluntarily assist them in developing qualities of citizenship, sportsmanship and manhood."

AS A BASEBALL program for boys under 13 years of age it has revitalized the finest traditions of the game in character and conduct.

PRACTICAL TRANSLATION of the philosophy of the Little League movement has fashioned new and vital profiles of people working together in the bond of helping boys. It is an advanced service and blueprint of assistance to communities, reflective of population growth, and changing trends.

Little League Baseball is essentially a program of service to youth. It is geared to provide an outlet of healthful activity and a training under good leadership in the atmosphere of wholesome community participation.

LITTLE LEAGUE is dedicated to helping boys become good and decent citizens. It strives to inspire them with a goal and to which they must take their places in the world. It establishes for them rudiments of team work and fair play. Little League enhances the welfare of the community and the nation through benefits to the boy and his family.

LITTLE LEAGUE is alert and sensitive to guard the trust given into its care by the parents of over a million boys each year.

Basically, Little League has two structural components, each dependent upon the other and each vital to the success of the program.

In his own right, Admiral Gallery is a distinguished writer and has authored many articles for the Saturday Evening Post, Reader's Digest and other widely read publications.

By REAR ADMIRAL D. V. GALLERY

There has been some loose talk by well-meaning but misguided people about the "evils" of Little League baseball. One of these evils is alleged to be too much emphasis on winning. Some of the critics seem to think the kids should play simply for the fun of playing and that winning or losing should be incidental.

I disagree. If all you want is healthy exercise you can get plenty of that by taking a cross-country hike, doing calisthenics, playing catch, or shagging flies. The only reason for playing any kind of a formal game, whether it's chess, golf, tennis, or basketball, is to generate competition and see who wins.

COMPETITION is one of the basic ingredients of our American way of life and the kids can learn a lot of things by trying to win. It is a lesson that will be useful to them later on.

They learn that no ball game is over till the last man is put out and that, even though you are out behind, it is always possible to pull a victory and win. They learn that if you dope out and get careless, an alert competitor will take advantage of it and beat you.

THEY LEARN THAT luck plays a big part in all human endeavor and that, even though you play well and give your best, a bad hop on an easy grounder can make you lose. They learn that, although you don't have to be happy about losing, you do have to learn to live with it and take it gracefully.

ALL these lessons will make the boys better citizens when they grow up and get into the tough competitive game of winning their livelihood.

SOME CRITICS say the game puts too much emotional strain on the kids. A kid strikes out with the bases full and busts out crying so they claim he has been hurt psychologically. Trick, Trick! If any kid on my ball team whiffs with the socks loaded and comes back to the bench grinning happily about it, he will get bounced off the ball team forthwith.

If I didn't bounce him, the other kids would! I've seen a whole team of brokehearted youngsters in tears after losing a tough ball game. But it didn't hurt them or mark them for life. Kid's hearts heal in about 20 minutes.

THERE ARE OVER a million adults in this country now who have played Little League Base-an easy hopper and lost a ball game when he was a Little Leaguer.

RIVALRY

I will admit, however, that there may be many crackups which can be blamed on seeing their son do it! In almost every case where there is overemphasis on one thing or another in the Little Leagues, it comes from misdirected enthusiasm of parents — not of coaches, managers or league officials.

LITTLE LEAGUES are of service to their communities in getting the kids off the streets and keeping them out of mischief. The police in any big city will tell you that a Little League is a big asset in combating juvenile delinquency.

It is much better for a kid to expend his energy trying to steal bases, than to turn it into many other channels which are only too easily found. I have yet to hear of any criminal saying just after he was sentenced to the penitentiary "I attribute my downfall to the evil influences of Little League Baseball."

FINALLY, Little League Baseball teaches the kids something about two things which are more important to the future of our country but which are apt to be overlooked these days by free thinkers and child psychologists — discipline and respect for authority.

The kids must learn a complicated book of rules and they find out that they must play by those rules and that, if they break the rules, they will be penalized for it. They learn that they must obey the boss man.

IF THE MANAGER says, "Lay off down kid, and advance the runner to scoring position," the youngster learns he's got to bunt, even though he would rather hit away and try to sling one over the fence. He learns to sacrifice his individual glory for the success of the team.

He also learns that, when the umpire says "Yer out," that's the end of it. No matter how big a wheel his old man may be, he can't make the ump change that decision, and on judgment decisions not even the Supreme Court of the United States can overrule the ump.

AND LET'S NOT get excited about it if the kids bust out bawling when they have good reason to do so. This might be a much better world to live in if the grownups who are running it would cry publicly, and admit it, when they make a horrible boo boo.

So ... "Batter up men and play ball."

What Is Ahead for Little League

More Youngsters To Be Participants

EDITOR'S NOTE: Harry E. Humphreys, Jr., chairman of the trustees of the Little League Foundation and chairman of the board, United States Rubber Company, was one of the featured speakers at the 20th anniversary year World Series, Williamsport, Penn. Below is part of his address.

BY HARRY E. HUMPHREYS, JR.

"I see this as an occasion not so much to look back with satisfaction on the last 20 years, but to ask ourselves what is ahead for Little League Baseball. What I see ahead is a marvelous opportunity — plus a tremendous challenge and responsibility for all the adults associated with Little League now or in the years to come.

"The main opportunity lies in the fact that by 1966 there will be 11 million boys of Little League age in the United States alone. The Little League idea is growing in popularity by leaps and bounds. Sons of former Little Leaguers will soon be coming of age in large numbers.

"THUS WE SHALL have a tremendous opportunity to spread the valuable lessons of Little League participation to more and more youngsters. We can teach them lessons in physical and emotional courage that will help mold the courageous leaders of tomorrow. We can help instill the fire of competitive spirit in those who will guide our domestic economy in years to come. We can help promote understanding of fellow men among those whose job will be to secure international good-will.

"Yet, as with all great opportunities, there are also problems and responsibilities.

"THERE ARE NOW 11 million boys playing Little League Baseball. When there are two million and three million and four million playing, will we have the proper organization to handle the
